

Is Michael Farris leading the home-school movement to establish greater liberty and freedom for America's parents or could there be another motive?

Have many of America's religious right leaders mastered the art of "fear-manipulation" to raise excessive money for their causes?

Ask yourself this question. If

Michael Farris

has personally pocketed nearly

$2,000,000

in the last five years "leading" the home-school movement, might he have an incentive not to establish real liberty and to continue frightening you into joining his scary-cause-of-the-month club?
