Judge Whittenburg

...comes from a family who has for years actively supported Planned Parenthood of Greater Iowa, the number one provider of abortions in Iowa.

...has served as Chair of the Planned Parenthood of Spencer Community Council.

...currently owns 25% of Chuck Whittenburg Distributor, Inc., beer distributorship of Spencer in violation of Iowa Code of Judicial Conduct. Though a complaint has been filed, the state Judicial Qualifications commission does nothing about it.

...as a Guardian at Litem instructed an O'Brien County father several years ago, to turn over to his troubled 16 year old son, a high powered military-style (lawful) rifle, during a custody dispute. The father refused.

...was the subject magistrate in a major expose' in the 2/16/04 Des Moines Register on a pattern of highly questionable plea deals occurring in Clay County.

...is the only known NW Iowa magistrate that became the target of an investigation ordered by the Iowa Supreme Court as a result of the Des Moines Register articles, before she even took her public oath of office as a new District #3 Judge. The former Clay County attorney, also named in the investigation, had his law license suspended December 2005.

The Cameron Arnold Judicial Reform Initiative is a special project of Rescue the Perishing of Ocheyedan, IA. More of a Jefferson/Jacksonian than a Hamiltonian director Paul Dorr has been working since 1988 to educate voters of the encroaching "irresponsibility" (as Andrew Jackson coined it) of the judicial branch of government. One behind-the-scenes supporter of Dorr was Cameron Arnold, a former Assoc. District Judge in this district and past President of the Iowa Judges Association. Arnold was an avid supporter of Dorr's reform initiatives until he passed away in 1998 and to this day Dorr enjoys the endorsement of "Cam's" widow.
